

Any partisan program must be paired with an equally long view from the other side, presented at a time when an equal amount of viewers can be expected to tune in. Anything else is illegal, unethical and unfair.